MyCloudIT: Customizable RDS Marketing Materials with Our Online Marketing Portal

Many MSPs and Partners struggle with distributing marketing materials while protecting and maintaining complete control of their brand. When clients demand information on the services you provide, you need a way to provide branded marketing assets in a moment's notice. By making your IT marketing materials available anywhere, anytime to the right people on your team, you can satisfy client demands and enhance your sales/marketing process with ease.

MyCloudIT's online marketing portal helps Partners market remote desktop services (RDS) in the Azure Cloud to end-users. Our portal contain a multitude of marketing collateral explaining the benefits of RDS in Azure and why it's the right choice for businesses looking to reduce costs, protect data, and empower their workforce.

Having instant access to a library of RDS marketing resources results in a quicker time to market, increased customer engagement, and the ability to close more sales in less time.

Empower Customers and Drive More Sales with Our Marketing Portal

Our marketing portal is easy to use, and it provides instant access to all the necessary RDS marketing collateral your sales team can leverage whenever, wherever they need. We give Partners an easy solution to promote their brand and explain their remote desktop services to end-users through a seamless marketing portal experience. This in turn allows you to enhance your sales engagements as well as easily distribute and manage your RDS marketing materials without hassle.

Experience the advantages of what our marketing portal has to offer:

Brand Customization

Your marketing portal content can be branded specifically for you and your customers, keeping all collateral consistent with your corporate branding. That way you can maintain brand integrity across your entire RDS marketing portfolio without having to invest more time or resources in creating original content.

Anytime, Anywhere Access

Consolidate all your RDS marketing assets in one online marketing portal. From our MyCloudIT User Guide, simply click on the “Marketing” tab where you will have access to the most up-to-date information on RDS marketing collateral at anytime, from anywhere in the world.

Improve Time to Market

With an online repository of marketing resources at your fingertips, you can provide the right information to customers at a moment’s notice and speed up time to market. Our portal is also available anytime – 24/7.

Major Cost-Savings

By streamlining your RDS marketing processes and getting your marketing collateral into the field as quickly as possible, you will experience faster turnaround and greater efficiency. Not only will you save valuable time, you'll also experience cost-savings across the board.
